NEW BUSINESS – Chief is happy to say the Police Department is full staff right now for the first time in a while. The rep for this area for the training board came by to congratulate the PD for what a great job they are doing in that area. Chief Caponigro gives an overview of how the training is handled by the city and what goes into it. Commissioner Fiorito asks who has spearheaded the training program and Chief mentions Sargeant Pufundt and Deputy Chief Derman as people who have taken hold of it.

OLD BUSINESS – Wrapped up last summer outreach program that included going to Brookfield Zoo. Chief wanted to thank Senator Julie Morrison for the work done near River Trails Park and her help in getting the funding to properly light that area. Cameras will be implemented in that same area to hopefully drive down crime.
